Running for council is a noble goal and your desire to do so is to be commended.

However, many of those who wish to become a council member may not have a full understanding of what that role requires. To help you better understand, we have prepared this information package. In the package, you will find information on:

- The Requirements of a Councillor

By reading this information package, we hope that you will be able to make a more informed decision on whether or not to run for office. About Lethbridge County

Lethbridge County is located in the heart of Southern Alberta among golden fields and impressive river valleys. Two irrigation districts serve the area, providing a stable water supply for the intensive agricultural operations that are the basis of the local economy. The future is bright here, making it a great place for business and investment.

The population of Lethbridge County is 10,353 (2016 Federal Census), with residents living in rural areas as well as the small communities, villages, and hamlets located within the County (Diamond City, Iron Springs, Kipp, Monarch, Turin, and Shaughnessy). The people who reside here are hard-working and community-minded, and take pride in making Lethbridge County an excellent place to live, work, and play.

Lethbridge County encompasses seven (7) electoral divisions in its jurisdiction. Every four (4) years, municipal elections bring together a diverse group of people to serve as council members and provide leadership and direction for the municipality. Drawing from their experiences and perspectives, these individuals come together to work as a unit in the interest of the municipality as a whole. The ability to compromise and reach a consensus about difficult issues is important, particularly when there are conflicting interests that must be reconciled. Since the County's establishment in 1964, the men and women who have served on Council have persevered in trying to identify the best course of action to serve the interests of the County.

Campaigning

Once you have filed your nomination form and your candidate's acceptance, there are several things to remember as you campaign to Election Day.

How do I Campaign?

There is no "standard" in campaigning when it comes to municipal elections. A candidate's campaign style will want to match the uniqueness of the municipality to the candidate's personality and available resources.

The purpose of campaigning is to convince the electors that you are the best candidate for the position in the municipality. Candidates have used various strategies including but not limited to:

- Door-knocking;
- Signage;
- Brochures or posters;
- Social media pages (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) or websites; and
- Host a meet and greet event.

Is There Anything I Cannot Do During a Campaign?

There are a variety of offence provisions included in the Local Authorities Election Act; it is encouraged that candidates review and understand all offence provisions in the Act.

In addition to the offence provisions, it is essential that candidates seek additional clarification from municipal returning officers relating to campaign activities. Municipalities may have local bylaws that may address campaign activities including but not limited to the use and placement of campaign signage throughout the municipality.

If candidates require additional interpretation or clarification, they are encouraged to seek independent legal services if required.

Voter Eligibility

According to Section 47 of the Local Authorities Election Act, a person is eligible to vote in an election held pursuant to this Act if the person:

- Is at least 18 years old
- Is a Canadian Citizen
- Has resided in Alberta for the 6 consecutive months immediately preceding election day and the person's place of residence is located in the area on election day.

Notes

1) Research

Are you wondering what it means to be the Reeve or a Councillor for Municipal Government? If you are deciding whether running for office is right for you, consider a variety of research, such as:

- Read the Alberta Municipal Affairs document Running for Office located at <http://www.municipalaffairs.alberta.ca/documents/Running%20for%20Municipal%20Office%20in%20Alberta%20-%20A%20Candidate%27s%20Guide.pdf>
- Visit County Council Meetings (1st and 3rd Thursday of each month)
- Speak with existing or past County Councillors
- Speak with the Returning Officer at 403-328-5525
- Speak with the residents of Lethbridge County
- Speak with CAO/County Manager

2) Public Forum

Lethbridge County does not organize or participate in public forums for candidates.

3) Signage

- No signage is permitted:
 - To be stapled or taped to telephone or power poles.
 - On public property, such as churches, parks or community facilities.
 - At any voting station.
- Signs are permitted on boulevards only with permission of the property owner on whose residence the signage is located.
- Signs must be removed from all sites within 24 hours of the election. If the signs are not removed, the County crew will be instructed to remove and dispose of them.

4) Voting Station

- Voting Stations to be determined and will include all facilities which share the same building, grounds, parking lot and public sidewalk around the facility.
- On Election Day, no candidate or either their agent or scrutineer is permitted to greet voters at the voting station. However, a designated area will be available for all candidates and either their agent or scrutineer, to observe the election process.

- An agent must be designated in advance on the authorized form.
- The candidate or agent may be present during the counting of the ballots. Only one (1) representative for each candidate may be present.

The Role of Reeve and Councillor

Lethbridge County Council is comprised of seven (7) Councillors elected for a term of four (4) years.

Each year an Organizational Meeting is held in October where the seven members of Council elect a Reeve. This position still serves as Councillor for their Division but has added duties which involves a higher public profile and commitment of time and availability.

Council's role is to set policies and provide a vision which form the guidelines for the daily operations of the County. Council has only one employee – the Chief Administrative Officer (CAO). The CAO is directly responsible for ensuring operations are conducted in a manner that follow and support Council's policies and vision. Council is not responsible for how the day-to-day operations of the municipality are conducted.

How Council is Governed

The Province provides the structure for local governments through legislation known as the Municipal Government Act. <https://www.qp.alberta.ca>

Time Commitment

Council Meetings: Two Council Meetings are scheduled per month, the first and third Thursdays starting at 9:30 am. Additional meetings may be called to address emergent matters. Meeting preparation, including reviewing agenda materials, reports, and other related communications, is expected.

Council Committees: Councillors are appointed to serve on Committees of Council annually at the Organizational Meeting on the basis of individuals' interest in committees, as well as maintaining a balance and commitment of time. Committee schedules vary, depending on the committee. Some committees meet more frequently than others, and are scheduled at different times, some during day, some during the evening.

Council Orientation and Training: Newly elected officials are now mandated to take Elected Official Training within 90 days of taking oath of office. The Elected Officials Education Program (EOEP) has developed Munis 101: The Essentials of Municipal Governance. This is a two-day course that will provide new and returning councillors with everything they need to not only meet mandatory training requirements but also succeed in their roles moving forward.

Conferences & Conventions: Rural Municipalities of Alberta (RMA) holds two annual conventions in the Spring and Fall. RMA plays a key role in representing municipal interests to the Provincial Government. In an election year, the convention will focus on educating new Reeves and Councillors. For this reason, newly Elected Officials should be prepared to attend this conference. There may be other conferences throughout the year.

Public Appearances: At time, Councillors are expected to represent Lethbridge County at public events. Due to the position, the Reeve will typically attend more public appearances.

Communication: It is imperative that Councillors read and respond to communication on a timely basis.

Councillor Remuneration

As per Administration Policy #183 – Council Remuneration, Council’s Base Rate is budgeted annually.

The 2020 Annual Base Rate for Council was as follows:

Reeve	$62,000
Councillor	$37,150

Some advice from former Councillors

- Be prepared to dedicate extra time to serve on committees. It is a big part of the job.
- Realize what you are committing to. Talk to past and/or current Council members to realize how much time this takes and what the impact will be on your current commitments.
- Make sure you are fully aware of the commitment which includes working during the day, evening and weekends.
- Personal agendas are not acceptable on the public stage; keep your mind open and fair.
- There will be situations where your decisions are not favourable even to your friends and neighbours.
- Being on Council is not a personality contest.
- Discuss your interests with your family. You will need their understanding and support.
- First and foremost, if you don't have your family's support and understanding that they will be sharing you with the entire community, this will be a very hard 4 years.
- You will be a member of Council and will no longer be seen to have an opinion as a resident. All groups will hear your words as a Council member first, no exceptions.
- Councillors can spend many hours per week in their role so be prepared to attend more meetings than Regular Council and Committee meetings.
- Some of your friends may lose faith in you – it's not your fault.
