

APPEAL PROCESS

A. DEVELOPMENT APPEALS

Any decision of the Development Authority can be appealed. Letters of Appeal stating the reason(s) for the appeal are made to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board and must be made within 14 days of receipt of the written decision:

- a) after the date the notice to the public is published in the newspapers;
- b) in the case of an appeal by an applicant, the date that the notice to the applicant is deemed to have been received;

A “Notice of Appeal Hearing” will be sent to all adjacent landowners.

B. SUBDIVISION APPEALS

A decision of the Subdivision Authority can be appealed. Letters of Appeal stating the reason(s) for the appeal are made to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board and must be made within 14 days of receipt of the written decision.

An Appeal can only be initiated by:

- a) the subdivision applicant;
- b) a provincial government department if the application is required to be referred to that department;
- c) a school authority with respect to:
 - i) the allocation of municipal reserve and school reserve money in place of the reserve, or
 - ii) the location of school reserve allocated to it or
 - iii) the amount of school reserve or money in place of the reserve.

All appeals are dealt with by the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board except that the Provincial Municipal Government Board deals with subdivision appeals that are within certain distances of a highway, a body of water, or a sewage treatment or waste management facility set out in the provincial Subdivision and Development Regulation.

As stipulated by the Municipal Government Act, all written appeals must contain the reasons for the appeal, including the issues in the decision or the conditions imposed in the approval that are the subject of the appeal.

NOTE: All appeals lodged must be accompanied by a $300.00 non-refundable appeal fee.
